MDX sponsors Symphony's Innovate 2017 conference

- joins Symphony's global partner program

28th September 2017 - London and New York - MDX Technology Ltd., the leading provider of real time data distribution solutions to the global trading community, is pleased to confirm they have signed up as a sponsor at the forthcoming Innovate 2017 conference hosted by Symphony. At the same time, MDX is also delighted to announce they have officially joined the Symphony Partner Program.

Paul Watmough, CEO and Co-founder of MDX comments, "This our first time as a sponsor and a partner, and we are excited about the collaboration opportunities the Innovate 2017 conference represents. It is the ideal setting, enabling us to network with like-minded firms and individuals and to showcase how MDX, in conjunction with the Symphony platform, will provide streamlined market data connectivity and significantly enhanced sharing capabilities for all Symphony users. Collaboration is the financial services' watchword of the moment and we believe this is the beginning of a mutually beneficial duet between our two firms, and one which will demonstrate the many advantages that true collaboration in action will deliver to all our joint customers."
